

THE DAILY TOMBSTONE.

The Pioneer Daily of the Camp.

APRIL 27 1885.

PUBLISHED EVERY EVENING,
(Sunday Excepted)

JAMES J. NASH.

Office on Allen Street, north side, between Third and Fourth.
Delivered by Carriers for 25 Cents a Week.

All quiet on Allen street.

Cochise is the banner county in the territory.

Democratic politicians and office-seekers in California are all broke up.

Only give us a show and see what we will do.—Bourbon Democracy.

Ere long Arizona will rank as the chief bullion producer in the United States.

Cleveland still continues to appoint republicans to positions of honor and trust.

Arizona ere long, at the present increase of population will soon be admitted to the union as the foremost state.

Ohio has joined Pennsylvania in passing laws to prevent big corporations from forcing their work-to buy household goods at the company's store.

It is insisted by the Louisville Courier Journal that in the course he is pursuing about the offices the president is simply "taking the democratic party at its word." This may be regarded as a defense of Mr. Cleveland's good intentions at the expense of his reputation for ordinary intelligence.

Democrats are smiling, saying that the republican party is dead and buried. We say wait and when the democrats have been in power four years, the people of this great and glorious republic will shout with one voice, down with the traitors, and the republican party forever.

Gen. Grant was able to take abundant nourishment on Thursday. The best nourishment he got came from the court room in which Banker Fish was convicted. "A rooted sorrow" is the largest part of the Old Commander's ailment.
The doctors could not pluck it from his memory, but the lawyers have done it, and he is better.

President Cleveland, pursuant to instructions from the democratic national committee, is fulfilling their instructions just opposite to a certain plank in the democratic platform. If we are not mistaken, and we don't think we are, there was a plank in the democratic platform, that all appointive offices to be filled by the president should be made from bona fide residents of the different territories. The said plank in the platform, although it did not catch the majority vote of the voters of the Pacific slope, was an inviting bait for them. As soon as time would permit, President Cleveland ignores this plank, and immediately appoints two non-residents to fill important positions in the territories of Utah and New Mexico, and it is a two to one bet that Arizona will fare the same way. But this is the way democrats do things. The staunch and true, who have been blowing about Cleveland and democracy, would do well to make a note of this.

TELEG RAPHER

Confederate Bonds.

New York, April 27.

A World's Charleston special says: The News and Courier explains the mystery of the confederate bond craze as follows: Judah P. Benjamin, secretary of state of the confederacy from 1862 until its collapse, was the originator of the plan by which the demand was created for bonds. At different times the Confederate congress voted large sums for secret service, the principal deposits being in London, and Paris banks. The funds were placed to the credit of Great Britain and France who were friendly to the south. At the close of the war there was an unexpended balance of $5, 080,000. Benjamin consulted with these agents as to the disposition of the money and it was agreed that it should be surrendered to the United States. The question was then how to disburse the money so as to benefit those who were entitled to it. It was concluded that the people who had given their means to the Confederacy for its bonds were entitled to the money, and bonds were advertised for, and to cover the real object of the movement it was hinted that the bonds were to be held by speculators and that suit was to be instituted against the United States for their payment.

Witchcraft.

SAN BERNARDINO, April 27.

An occurrence which partakes of the nature of a comedy, but which came near resulting in a tragedy, happened at a camp of the Cocahuilla Indians, in this county, a few days ago.
It seems that one of the Indians has died here, presumably from natural causes, but the dead man's relatives accused another of the tribe of burying some poisonous weed and bewitching the deceased with the fire. He was put on trial for witchcraft and murder, found guilty and sentenced to death. The poor wretch would undoubtedly have been killed had not the affair come to the notice of some white residents of the neighborhood, who hurried to the place and found the man tied hand and foot to prevent his escape. They liberated the unfortunate man and finally prevailed upon the superstitious aborigines to place the matter before the Indian agent at this place and abide by his decision. The chief of the tribe and a large number of his subjects came to town this morning for that purpose, but the agent was not in town, so the hearing was postponed until Monday next.

Murdered in Mexico.

LAREDO, Texas, April 27.

Information has been received here from reliable sources that Mr. Lucino Avery, an American citizen, but for many years a resident of Mexico, was foully murdered on the night of the 16th instant, with the robbery as the incentive. The murderers rifled the safe of $500 and decamped. Efforts are being made to apprehend them.
Mr. Avery has held many positions of trust in the service of the United States, having been at various times United States consul at Camargo, Matamoros and Monterey. He was extensively known and highly respected.
It was in the exercise of rare fidelity to a trust that he met his death at the hands of murderous robbers rather than surrender to their demand the property of his employers.

Cattlemen vs. Homesteaders.

OMAHA, April 27.

The offices and buildings of the Brighton Ranch company, are besieged by 100 armed homesteaders, intent upon their destruction and the driving out of their employes. Virgil Alley, the resident manager, and a man of large wealth, has been ordered to leave the country at once under pain of death. The trouble grows out of the murder of a settler named Provence by one of the company's men last Saturday. For years there has been a struggle between the company and intending settlers.

To Dyspeptics.

The most common signs of Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, are an oppression at the stomach, nausea, flatulency, water-brash, heartburn, vomiting, loss of appetite, and constipation. Dyspeptic patients suffer untold miseries, bodily and mental. They should stimulate the digestion, and secure regular daily action of the bowels, by the use of moderate doses of Ayer's Pills.

After the bowels are regulated, one of these Pills, taken each day after dinner, is usually all that is required to complete the cure.
AYER'S PILLS are sugar-coated and purely vegetable—a pleasant, entirely safe, and reliable medicine for the cure of all disorders of the stomach and bowels. They are the best of all purgatives for family use.
